

WANTED

Pulltabs Plus is looking for 2 sales people to sell charitable gambling supplies in the Minnesota marketplace.

Would you like to come work with us? The job involves contacting licensed charitable organizations all over the state of MN and selling them pulltabs, bingo paper, electronics and other charitable gambling products. If you have the gift of gab and can handle the rejection that comes with sales then send us your resume. This job does not require you to work out of our office, you can work from your car or home if you so choose. We do have a complete support staff on hand at our office to assist you with getting product out to your customers. If accepted for employment the state of MN requires a background check. To obtain a sales ID in MN you have to pass the state background check and cannot have a felony or owe more than $500 in back taxes.

If you know of someone who would be good for one of these positions, please refer them.
